The Top Ten Reasons to Attend a DDA Retreat:

10. DDA helps you feel really good about yourself (You're a child of God!)
9. You get to find yourself and YOUR faith, not your parents or friends faith...it's about you finding God for yourself.
8. You skip a day of school and live with a bunch of people your age for a few days.
7. Your parents just might be paying.
6. You become a part of an awesome new family.
5. Jesus would go.
4. Oh man, best food - ever.
3. DDA is like a mini-vacation: 3 1/2 days away from the real world. (Or maybe this is the real real world!)
2. Make friendships that will last, memories that will last longer, and a bond with God that will help you through a lot. Trust me.
1. DDA and CYFM can change your life for the better, and help you realize that God is the one friend you know won't change or leave.
